

Stonegate Email News of 2-09-07

Frost Damage Trimming. If there are no further indications of possible frosty weather, Stonegate crews will begin to trim frost damage in the common areas starting next Thursday or Friday. The work will continue for about six weeks. The common area trimming will be extensive – as it will for homeowners.

Tennis Mixer Tomorrow. Don't forget Michael Grant's free Valentines Mixer (uh—partners optional), this Saturday, February 10, 1 to 3 PM at main courts. This time let's hope the weather holds. Call Michael to register: (602) 741-5683.

Scottsdale Brush & Bulk Collection. Next week is our week. If you set out items for collection, please don't block the sidewalk.

Channel 22 is back! Cox has restored it to full function on digital converter boxes. And just in the nick of time...

Meet the Candidates on Channel 22. Eight candidates are running for three Stonegate Board seats in the March election. How can you decide who to vote for? The Nomination and Election Committee has prepared a 20 minute tape, offering a brief statement from each candidate. Although election materials don't go out until March 1, you can watch the tape now. Below is a schedule for the first two weeks.
