

Stonegate Email News of 4/05/07

An Invitation to Roof Rats

Got citrus? Roof rats love the stuff. And a couple of pieces of suspiciously hollowed-out fruit have been found in Stonegate. So if you don't want to contribute to the health and breeding success any roof rats which might be in the area, clean it up. Harvest the fruit that's still on the tree and pick up all the fallen pieces. This weekend is a good time to do it.

Scottsdale Bulk and Brush Collection

Next week is our week. The city asks that you have your brush and bulk items out early Monday, though they don't say which day will be our pick-up. Stonegate asks that you not block the sidewalk.

Lost Stroller

Pat Tom tells us that someone left a stroller at her recent open house in Windemere. If it's yours, please call her at (480) 661-7732.

Holiday Schedule

The Community Center will be closed Friday and Saturday for the holiday. Recreational facilities will keep normal hours. The Community Center will reopen Monday at 8:30AM. Have a good weekend.