

Stonegate Email News of August 3, 2007

UFO Crashes in Stonegate. Last Tuesday night, an Unfortunate Flying Object crashed by the big mesquite tree in the Stonegate pool area, after flying in at an altitude of 20 feet or so, all the way from the pool deck. That umbrella, which some forgetful soul had left up, was caught by a monsoon wind and, putting it mildly, will never be the same. Please help its pop-top friends. When you see an umbrella left up, put it down.

Stonegate Stepping Out is a new group which hopes to arrange quarterly themed social events for Stonegate residents. Belcourt resident Ann Fitzgerald is the coordinator, working with Judy Balan and others. If you're among those who feel that there should be more social events, she'd like to hear from you. Call her at (480) 946-2255. The group's first activity will be . . .

Wednesday Night Wine Tasting. Mingle, taste, learn and get to know more of your Stonegate neighbors on August 22, 5 – 7 PM at CRU Fine Wines, 10855 N. 116th St. next to Mountainside Fitness. $10 per person covers munchies and a glass for tasting four wines. Space is limited. To reserve a place, call Karen at CRU, (480) 222-4098.

The Stonegate Contemporary Cinema Discussion Group will meet at 4PM on Monday, August 6 to discuss Hairspray, which is now playing at several Scottsdale theaters. Everyone is invited.

The Stonegate Community Center will be closed tomorrow (Saturday, August 4) so the painters can finish the high work in the lobby.
