

Stonegate Email News of August 6, 2007

Wednesday Night Wine Tasting. Last Friday's newsletter included a small but very important error. The correct phone number to sign up for the wine tasting event on August 22 at CRU Fine Wines is (480) 222-4098. Ann Fitzpatrick is nonetheless very pleased at the response so far. Because CRU is not a large place, space is limited.

The next brush and bulk collection is next week. Scottsdale wants your items out curbside (but not blocking the sidewalk) early next Monday morning. Stonegate hopes you'll hold off until the weekend, and not put things out too early. Scottsdale will not tell us which day they'll pick up, but in the past, it has generally been late in the week. If your stuff goes out now, that means a week and a half of conspicuous mess.

The Contemporary Cinema Discussion Group will meet next Monday at 4PM at the Community Center. They'll discuss Becoming Jane, the story of Jane Austin, now playing at the Camelview.
