

Stonegate Email News of 4-22-08

Come swim at Stonegate Pool, starting this Thursday. The pool will reopen Thursday, a week ahead of schedule. Filling will start at about 3PM today and Burl will be able to crank up the heaters some time Wednesday morning. 24 hours later, it will be swimmable. The spa should be open some time Saturday. However, landscaping will be done next week, so if you come this weekend, you won't get the full visual impact of the new fountain/waterfall design.
