

Stonegate Email News of 1-23-09

26% of Stonegate households have voted. Now we need everyone else to do so. Heritage Court wins this week's highly unofficial Community Spirit Kudos, with an impressive 44% voting. Timarron and Windemere tie for second with a very respectable 32%. Have you voted? Has your neighbor? Please, please vote. No result is possible until 67% have voted.

Can't find the ballot? Can't remember whether you got one? Come on in the Community Center and fill out a ballot. Or call (480) 391-9760 (ext.14) and we'll run it right over. It really is that important.

The Poker Night scheduled for next Thursday, January 29 is a go. Wanna play? Please deliver your cash or check for the $50 buy-in to the Community Center, or leave it (in an envelope) in the drop box at Main Gate. Then show up at 6:30PM Thursday. Jerry Levine, our organizer, says that the first two players out will each get their choice of the bottles of fine Oregon and California wines generously donated by Stonegate's favorite CPA/tax wizard, Dennis Solin. (480-850-6503.)

Important change in Scottsdale Brush and Bulk pick-up: They've notified us that as of the next pick-up, we will be picked up on Monday morning, not Friday afternoon. So the date is Monday, February 9. Be sure to set your pick-up items out the preceding night.

Stonegate Contemporary Cinema Discussion Group meets again next Monday, January 26 at 4PM. The film will be The Reader, playing at the Camelview and Desert Ridge, with several Academy nominations including Best Picture.
