Born and raised in Carmel, Indiana, I am Midwestern at heart, but after spending many years in Scottsdale, Arizona this is home! I attended Purdue University for my undergraduate degree and received my M.B.A. from Indiana University. After working as a business consultant for Deloitte Consulting in Chicago and New York City, my husband and I decided to relocate to Scottsdale to be near family and friends. For the past several years, I have been enjoying a successful career in real estate with Realty Executives.

I provide exemplary service to buyers interested in becoming a part of the Scottsdale community and those who are going through the "selling process." Whether you are relocating from another state, purchasing a second home or investment property, or just looking to move your family to a new home, I am committed to making your experience a positive one.

What are Christy's clients saying? Client Testimonials....

Long before we were ready to sell our house, our previous neighbors told us how happy they were with their Realtor. So, needless to say, we contacted them and got her name...Christy Mooney. On her first visit, walk thru and sit down, we had no doubt she was our girl. Smart, knowledgeable and professional, she knew the area and the market. She was very astute in helping us determine the right selling price for our house. We did not want a lot of unnecessary traffic and the house sold much faster than even we anticipated. We were extremely comfortable that she always had our best interests and outcomes in mind as she represented us. Christy was there assisting and guiding us every step of the way... from the sales contract thru escrow and helping us find our new home. She kept us well informed throughout the process and was very timely and responsive. Her list of contacts was invaluable...from inspectors, handy men, cleaning services, movers and even consignment (we downsized)! There were no problems...only solutions! Even though she was extremely professional, we felt like we made a new friend. I have already recommended her to friends and will continue to espouse her virtues to anyone who will listen!

Christy has now represented our family in over 5 transactions over the years. Her professionalism, demeanor, knowledge of the market and responsiveness are top notch. Christy works pro-actively as a realtor, which is very refreshing. She worked hard to get the word out on the sale of our home over two weeks prior to ensure our traffic was strong. This effort paid off as the house was sold in 5 days! If you are looking for a great AZ realtor...look no more. I promise you will not be disappointed.

We have bought and sold 8 homes over the years and Christy is easily the best realty agent that we have worked with. She has excellent knowledge of the Scottsdale market and throughout the buying and closing process we always felt that she had our best interests in mind. She communicates well, stays on-top of things, and is willing to do whatever it takes to seal the deal. I would recommend Christy without hesitation!
