Karen has been in Scottsdale since 1974 and a Stonegate resident since 1993. She started her real estate career in 1987 working with her mother, Flora Weston, a Realtor for 20 years. Since 1987 she has sold over 1200 homes with over 125 sales in Stonegate.

Known for her generosity in donating her time and support to Stonegate activities, Karen is a member of the Stonegate Architectural Committee which meets twice a month. She also works with Stonegate staff to update information for the weekly Stonegate Real Estate List and website. Named Stonegate

Volunteer of the year in 2007, she's a Stonegate Spring Fling sponsor, supplying ice cream treats to the hundreds who show up for Stonegate's annual picnic. Her interests in the community extends beyond Stonegate's walls. Karen is a Board of Directors member and active supporter of the Chrysalis Shelter for Victims of Domestic Abuse, organizing drives in Stonegate and other communities.

Working from her office at Coldwell Banker Residential Brokerage, where she is an Associate Broker, Karen has more than 20 years experience serving Scottsdale, Paradise Valley, Pinnacle Peak, Phoenix, Fountain Hills, Carefree, and Cave Creek, communities where she has intimate local knowledge. She works extensively to help buyers and sellers meet their real estate goals, whether it is a primary residence, second home, or investment property. Karen works with both sellers and buyers. For sellers, her vast experience in both listing and selling homes. marketing through Coldwell Banker, and her creative negotiating skills make it a smooth and successful transaction for all. For buyers, she loves to search until she finds them the perfect home and then negotiates the best possible terms for her client . Nothing satisfies Karen more than seeing the smiles from her clients — and the appreciation of clients and other Realtors and brokers.
